Holiday Decorations!

Janice Nearhoof

Would you like to make a Christmas stocking, decorations for your family's tree and have the Grinch hanging in your room this Christmas? Then come to the Christmas decoration class! We will be making personalized decorated stockings, Crafter's dough tree ornaments and a set of room decorations Santa, Frosty the Snow Man and The Grinch from paper plates, markers, crayons, construction paper and felt. There is a secret project that only Santa knows about in case you want to give it as a Christmas Present!

Holiday Ceramics

Shaunenne Holt

This Time Around we'll be making Ornaments and small gifts for the Holidays! Come play in the mud with us! Ceramics is an exciting medium that can mimic most other materials. Working with clay is fun, and messy! It teaches students patience and the concepts of three dimensional design. I teach kids the fundamentals of clay. From the basics we build to more comprehensive projects. We listen to music, laugh, and most importantly we are allowed to get messy in my class-in fact it's a requirement.

Steampunk

Shaunenne Holt

Steampunk has been around since the 80's and is still picking up steam. The essence of this movement is the combination of technology and romance. Think: Victorian era meets punk, think: machine meets "Romeo and Juliet". This style of art is quickly moving from the underground to the mainstream. We will disassemble and "mod" (modify) our materials to create unique gifts! Bring in anything old with some nuts and bolts to it. Examples of good Steampunk materials include: old watches, old costume jewelry, keys, circuit boards, metal, leather, and watch gears. Most materials you can find at a flea market or thrift store. Splashes of paint, decoupage, ink, and Resin- you name it and we can Steampunk it! We supply some materials that we need however if you have anything laying around that doesn't serve a purpose anymore please bring it in and we'll tear it apart and create cool art with it. You will be leaving the classes with either a gift you've made or something cool for yourself.
